

Radomir Híkl, Dipl.Hom., born on November 25.1965, in Ostrava - Czech Republic Graduating from the Faculty of Homeopathy in Brno-Czech Republic, member of CLHS-Czech Medical Homeopathic Association, practicing Classical Homeopathy for several years.

Since 2004 he was working as an Classical Homeopath at the well known Balavi-Natural Medical Clinic in Bangkok and Chiang Mai-Thailand.

In May 2005 he started the first Homeopathic Educational Program in Thailand, teaching Classical Homeopathy to medical doctors, nurses, layman. 2007 he started advanced educational program on Homeopathy teaching NGOs group from all over Thailand. From January until May 2008, he was a guest lecture and worked at the Sappasitthiprasong Hospital in Ubon Rathathani, supported by the department of Alternative Medicine, by the Thai Ministry of Public Health.

He lectures at the 2 years post gradual Homeopathic Education Program organized by the Ubon Rathathani Pharmacy University along with the department of Alternative Medicine, by the Thai Ministry of Public Health.

He regularly travels to Bombay-India, where he practice Classical Homeopathy at the Homeopathic Clinic with well known Prof. Dr. Farok Master, He study with Dr.Will Tylor and other well respected Homeopaths.

Steadily attends homeopathic conferences and seminars around the World. He lectures in Czech Republic at the Brno Faculty of Classical Homeopathy, Slovak Academy of Classical Homeopathy and publishes articles in the Czech Homeopathic Magazine "Homeopaticke Listy. He is the author of the book "Homeopathic remedies for acute diseases" in English and Thai language.

Presently he lives, works and teach in Chiang Mai-Thailand.